1. Context

While eClerx continues to provide expert outsourcing options, it has not lost sight of its commitment to play its role as an enlightened corporate citizen. Corporate Social Responsibility has always been on its agenda. Further pursuant to Section 135 of the Companies Act, 2013, and Companies (Corporate Social Responsibility Policy) Rules, 2014, including any statutory amendments and modifications thereto, every Company having net worth of Rs. 500 crore or more or turnover of Rs. 1,000 crore or more or net profit of Rs. 5 crore or more during the immediately preceding financial year shall constitute Corporate Social Responsibility Committee ('CSR Committee') and the CSR Committee shall formulate and recommend Policy.

The CSR Committee so constituted formulated Policy on Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR Policy) and recommended the same to the Board of Directors of the Company ('Board') for its approval. The Board vide its resolution dated March 29, 2014 approved and adopted the CSR Policy with immediate effect. Further, the Policy was amended on July 31, 2014, January 30, 2015, August 10, 2015, November 2, 2015, January 29, 2016, August 29, 2016, May 30, 2017, August 11, 2017, June 10, 2021 and May 25, 2023.

The Board vide its resolution dated May 25, 2023 renamed the "CSR Committee" (CSR Committee) to "Corporate Social Responsibility and Environment Social & Governance Committee" (CSR & ESG Committee).

1.1. Objectives of the Policy

This Policy shall be read in line with Section 135 of the Companies Act 2013, Companies (Corporate Social Responsibility Policy) Rules, 2014 and such other rules, regulations, circulars, and notifications (collectively referred hereinafter as 'Regulations') as may be applicable and as amended from time to time and will, inter-alia, provide for the following:

3. Procedures

3.1. Funding

As per the Regulations the Company will set aside, for annual CSR activities, an amount equal to atleast 2% of the average Net Profits of the Company made during the three immediately preceding financial years.

Provided that all reasonable efforts will be made to ensure that the annual CSR allocation is fully utilised in the respective year. However, if the Company fails to spend such amount, the Board of Directors shall, in its report under clause (o) of sub-section (3) of section 134 of the Act, specify the reasons for not spending the amount and unless the unspent amount relates to any ongoing project, such amount shall be transferred to a Fund specified in Schedule VII of the Act, within a period of six months of the expiry of the financial year.

Any amount remaining unspent pursuant to any ongoing project, fulfilling such conditions as may be prescribed, undertaken by a company in pursuance of its Corporate Social Responsibility Policy, shall be transferred by the company within a period of thirty days from the end of the financial year to a special account to be opened by the company in that behalf for that financial year in any scheduled bank to be called the Unspent Corporate Social Responsibility Account, and such amount shall be spent by the company in pursuance of its obligation towards the Corporate Social Responsibility Policy within a period of three financial years from the date of such transfer, failing which, the company shall transfer the same to a Fund specified in Schedule VII of the Act, within a period of thirty days from the date of completion of the third financial year.

Any surplus arising out of the CSR activities shall not form part of the business profit of a company and shall be ploughed back into the same project or shall be transferred to the Unspent CSR Account and spent in pursuance of CSR policy and annual action plan of the company or transfer such surplus amount to a Fund specified in Schedule VII of the Act, within a period of six months of the expiry of the financial year.

Where a company spends an amount in excess of requirement provided under sub-section (5) of section 135, such excess amount may be set off against the requirement to spend under sub-section (5) of section 135 up to immediate succeeding three financial years subject to the conditions that –

(i) the excess amount available for set off shall not include the surplus arising out of the CSR activities, if any, in pursuance of sub-rule (2) of this rule.

(ii) the Board of the company shall pass a resolution to that effect.

Tax treatment of CSR spend will be in accordance with the Income Tax Act, 1961 as may be notified by Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT).

3.2. Planning and Implementation

1. For the purpose of focusing its CSR efforts in a continued and effective, Education and Literacy Enhancement is identified as a main thrust area, besides other activities permitted under the Regulations.
2. The Projects may be divided into two main categories – Direct Project Funding and Employee Engagement. Projects which involve considerable financial commitment undertaken on a timeframe of 1-3 years where eClerx will be the primary sponsor, will be considered under Direct Project Funding and accorded due significance. Payroll Giving initiatives will fall under Employee Engagement.
3. Every year, the CSR & ESG Committee will place for the approval of the Board of Directors of the Company an annual CSR Action Plan which shall include:

- a. the list of CSR projects or programmes that are approved to be undertaken in areas or subjects specified in Schedule VII of the Act;

 - d. The antecedents of the CSR Partner are verifiable
 - e. Have requisite framework to report progress/status of the projects on a quarterly basis on agreed parameters
 - f. Maintain a required level of auditable records on the CSR initiatives conducted in conjunction with eClerx as agreed mutually
2. Once the project/program is approved, eClerx and the CSR Partner will be required to enter into an agreement as per the standard MOU requirements

3.5. Review and Reporting

The CSR & ESG Committee will review the philanthropic activities of the Company and will provide progress update to the Board of Directors every six months/such other intervals as deemed fit.

The Company will report, in the prescribed format as given under the Act, the details of CSR initiatives and activities of the Company in the Directors' Report and on the website of the Company, as required under the Act. Such reporting will be done, pertaining to financial year(s) commencing on or after the 1st day of April 2014.

Every company having average CSR obligation of ten crore rupees or more in pursuance of Section 135(5) of the Act, in the three immediately preceding financial years, shall undertake impact assessment, through an independent agency, of their CSR projects having outlays of one crore rupees or more, and which have been completed not less than one year before undertaking the impact study. The impact assessment reports shall be placed before the Board and shall be annexed to the annual report on CSR.

A Company undertaking impact assessment may book the expenditure towards Corporate Social Responsibility for that financial year, which shall not exceed five percent of the total CSR expenditure for that financial year or fifty lakh rupees, whichever is less.

4. Monitoring

1. Appropriate documentation and amendments of the CSR Policy, annual CSR activities, reports on execution by CSR Partner(s) and expenditures will be undertaken on a regular basis and same will be available to the Board of Directors of the Company.
2. Initiatives undertaken on the CSR front will be reported in the Annual Report of the Company.
3. The CSR & ESG Committee and persons/entities authorised by it, will conduct due diligence checks on the current projects/partners on a quarterly basis and report anomalies, if any, immediately.
4. Based on analysis of current projects, carry out roadmap planning for allocation of budget and selection of projects. The same will be done atleast once in a financial year.
5. Plan and publish an annual calendar of major events so as strive for maximum participation of stakeholders
