

After PM's call, ministers, NDA CMs cut convoy size

After Prime Minister Narendra Modi's call, ministers and NDA Chief Ministers have decided to cut the size of their security convoys. This move is seen as a gesture to reduce the security burden on the public and to streamline the government's operations. The decision was taken during a meeting held in the Prime Minister's Office. Ministers from various NDA member parties, including the BJP, NDA, and others, participated in the discussion. They agreed to limit the number of vehicles in their convoys and to avoid unnecessary stops. This decision is expected to be implemented across the board, affecting all ministers and NDA CMs. The move is also seen as a step towards improving the efficiency of the government's security arrangements.
